

Sri N. O. SOMAJI.—(Marathi.)

Sri B. D. JATTI.—Government will examine, if it has not already examined.

Sri F. H. MOHSIN.—Sir, is it not the first time in the history of jail administration that an Assistant Commissioner of the Revenue Department has been brought to the Central Jail ?

Sri H. M. CHANNABASAPPA.—It is not correct Sir.

Sri F. H. MOHSIN.—Is it not a fact that the persons working in the Jail Department have appealed to the Government that it will affect their promotions if the Revenue Officers are brought to the Jail Department ?

Sri H. M. CHANNABASAPPA.—When suitable candidates are not available, it is always open to the Government to appoint persons from the Revenue Department.

Mr. SPEAKER.—Questions are over.

QUESTIONS FOR ANSWERS ON THE DAY

(but not taken up)

RENOVATION OF HISTORICAL AND CULTURAL MONUMENTS IN NORTH KARNATAK.

*Q.—722. Sri A. J. DODDAMETI (Ron).—

Will the Government be pleased to state:—

(a) the names and the number of Historical and Cultural monuments in North Karnatak belonging to the period after 1700 A. D. that have been renovated by Government under the Ancient Monuments Preservation Act;

(b) whether the Government have taken over under their control the Historical monuments in 'Kitbur and Bylahongala' in Belgaum District and whether a statement of such monuments would be furnished;

(c) whether the Fort of the Kings of Kittur and the tombs of Kittur Rani Channamma, Veeramma and Sangollirayana, who defied the authority of the British in Western India, have been explored and declared as Historical monuments, and if so, where are they and under whose administration;

(d) whether they would consider them as tourist centres and arrange to afford due facilities for tourists;

(e) whether it is under their consideration to start either a military school or a physical culture institution in Kittur Fort after taking the same under their control and effecting necessary repairs?

A.—Sri ANNARAO GANAMUKHI (Minister for Education).—

(a) The 319 monuments in the North Karnataka protected by the then Government of Bombay are looked after by the Central Department of Archaeology.

(b) Only the two inscriptions of Ratta Chieftains in the Old Shiva Temple at Bailhongala and a Kadamba inscription in the Sri Basaveshwara Temple at Kittur, both in Belgaum District, have been protected and declared as of national importance.

(c) A detailed survey of these places is yet to be made; hence the point does not arise.

(d) This has to be examined.

(e) There is no such proposal before Government.

SUPPLY OF C. I. PIPES OF 36" DIAMETER FOR THE TRIPPLICATE MAIN FROM THIPPAGONDANAHALLI TO BANGALORE.

*Q.—1094. Sri C. M. ARUMUGHAM (K.G.F.).—

Will the Government be pleased to state:—

(a) whether it is a fact that they have placed order to a West Bengal firm to supply 7,406 C.I. Pipes of 36" diameter for the Triplicate main from Thippagondanahalli to Bangalore;

(b) whether there was any advice from the Chief Engineer for 30" C. I. pipes instead of 36" Pipes;

(c) the reason for the Government to turn down the technical advice?

A.—Sri H. K. VEERANNA GOWDH (Minister for Public Works and Electricity).—

(a) Yes.

(b) Yes.

(c) The Chief Engineer's proposal was duly examined by the Ad Hoc Committee constituted by Government for the Long Range Water Supply Scheme to Bangalore which consisted of Retired Engineers who are experts in the line and of the Chief Engineer (General) who was in charge of Public Health also. The Committee's opinion was in favour of having 36" diameter pipe, in preference to 30" pipe as recommended by the Chief Engineer, Irrigation and Public Health. The Public Health Engineering Organisation of the Government of India also agreed with the recommendation of the Ad Hoc Committee. Under the advice of these expert bodies Government after considering all aspects of the question decided to adopt 36" diameter pipe being the most economical for supply of the available potential at Thippagondanahalli.
